

B-MINCOME

Inclusió sostenible a Barcelona

Pilot project for combating poverty and inequality in Barcelona's deprived areas. It has run for two years, ending this December 2019.

It is based on combining economic aid, in the form of Municipal Inclusion Support, with a community active policy.

Receipt of the benefit is not conditioned by compulsory participation in this policy.

The target of the project:

- Serious poverty situations
- Many different origins and countries
- Many socio-cultural levels
- Very isolated people (poor social network)
- Mostly women caregivers
- Mostly unemployed people
- Very little knowledge of the resources at their disposal
- Traditionally very dependant on social services

- Evaluation of community policy in B-Mincome project

KEY ELEMENTS: THE RESULTS

Live significant experiences

- Self-organisation and empowerment

Create bonds between people

- Promote relationships and combat social isolation, combining individual and group meetings. Close connection through networks like Whatsapp.

Feeling of belonging

- Everyone is a part of the group and the community activities are done in recognized places.

Inclusion

- Fight against social inequalities and increases the access to resources

Recognition

- Give them the voice to decide. All is done by participatory process, we decide all together.
