

The European Local Development Network

I would like to register as member of the ‘European Local Development Network Association MTÜ’, which is a non-profit association registered in Estonia.

I have read the articles and memorandum of the association and agree with its objectives:

To promote the exchange of knowledge and experience in the field of community-led local development (CLLD), to support cooperation, innovation and networking at the European level, and to contribute to the development of local development policy and practices.
